Investigation into Missing Teen Continues: Police seeking public assistance

BRIEF: Delta Police responded to a report of a missing person on November 13 2006 at 8:38 p.m. Seventeen year old Brittany STALMAN was last seen at her family residence located in the 7400 blk of Crawford Drive, North Delta. She left the home around 1:00 p.m. with only the clothes on her back leaving her purse and wallet behind. It is believed that she has no access to money and has in the past suffered from depression.

Police have exhausted all traditional avenues but have not yet been able to locate her. The Delta Police are continuing with the investigation and utilizing services from outside agencies.

Description:

Brittany described as: 5'6 / 110 lbs slim build, long brown hair and brown eyes.

Clothing description: Black zip-up bomber style jacket, grey sweat pants (possibly with lettering on the back of the pants) and blue and white Puma runners. Brittany believed to be carrying a pink disc-man.

Disorders/Special Needs: Brittany does have a history of depression.

Brittany does suffer from bouts of depression and is under medical care.

Although Brittany has run away before it is out of character for her to stay away for this period of time.

Understandably, the family is very concerned and Police are pursuing all avenues available in attempts to locate Brittany.

Delta Police are requesting the public's assistance in locating Brittany STALMAN. Anyone who has information on her whereabouts please contact the Delta Police Department at 946 4411
